Expanded Early Vote In-Person Hours

(Columbus) Starting today in-person voting hours have expanded by one hour a day as well as weekend voting, see hours below. Through the first nine days of early in-person voting at the Franklin County Board of Elections, 37k voters have cast a ballot. The BOE encourages voters who are going to vote in-person to dress appropriately. Voters in line at the time of closing for the day will be able to vote.

October 19 – 23

(Weekdays Only - Monday through Friday)
8:00 AM – 6:00 PM

Saturday, October 24

8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Sunday, October 25

1:00 – 5:00 PM

Voters who want to return their voted absentee mail-in ballot can deliver them to the board at 1700 Morse Road. The board has two drop boxes, one a 24/7 drop box, and a two-lane drive thru that is open during early voting hours.
