

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

7:00am Ecumenical Prayer Service

Trinity Episcopal Church

The sunrise service will draw upon Ohio's rich and diverse faith communities to begin Inauguration day. Clergy, children and a cathedral choir will blend scripture readings, songs and hymns to usher in this new chapter in Ohio's history.

9:30am Martin Luther King Jr. Tribute

The Palace Theatre

Join Ohioans for a tribute to Martin Luther King, Jr., and a celebration of diversity. The program will highlight Dr. King's achievements through gospel music, dance, soloists and photos, and children from across Ohio will present dialogues on his life and work.

11:30am Strickland-Fisher Inauguration
Uniting Ohioans to Turn Around Ohio

The Ohio Statehouse West Lawn

Join Ted Strickland and Lee Fisher on the West lawn of the Ohio Statehouse as they are sworn in as Ohio's next Governor and Lieutenant Governor. Following the ceremony, Ted and Lee, along with Frances and Peggy, will greet the public in the Statehouse Atrium.

2:00pm Beautiful Ohio: A Public Reception

The Palace Theatre

Celebrate the sights, sounds and voices of Ohio. The afternoon's performance will showcase a snapshot of Ohio's incredible artistic talent, from students to Broadway and White House performers.

* 8:00pm Ohio Inaugural Ball Ohio State Fairgrounds:
$75.00 per person/Black Tie Optional

The Lausche Building

Tonight, new and old friends unite to honor Ohio's rich history and celebrate a new beginning in our state. To purchase tickets, please read the ticketing information found on the following page.

In the case of inclement weather, the Inaugural Swearing-In Ceremony will be held at the Palace Theatre.

The Inaugural Ball is a black-tie optional event.

To purchase tickets, please call the inaugural information hotline at 1-866-494-OHIO.

-6446